A large graphic area consisting of several horizontal bands of color: a light green band at the top, followed by a light purple band, a light blue band, and a darker blue band. Faint musical notes and a treble clef are scattered across these bands. The bottom of this area is defined by a dark grey wavy shape.
